SUBENDOCARDIAL HEMORRHAGES.

The left ventricle (LV) is cut opened. The upper part of the LV shows subendocardial hemorrhage measuring 1.5 x 2 cm in size and black in colour. The ventricular wall thickness is normal.

A PHOTOGRAPH OF A SUBENDOCARDIAL HAEMORRHAGE

A Photograph from Google image showing subendocardial hemorrhages in the papillary muscles of the heart