

75 year old man presented with right foot big toe painful, gangrene for 3 weeks duration. He is a known smoker for 35 years, DM for last 10 years.

1. Enumerate diagnosis/ differential diagnosis
2. Identify the importance of clinical evaluation in the management of this patient
3. What are the investigations you need to carry out and explain the reasons for those
4. How will you manage this patient further? Discuss