Babtism 2016 - the commencement ceremony at the International Student Conference was held with full enthusiasm in the main hall of the University of Kazan. Students from various countries are taking part in the event. The ceremony was held in the presence of the Rector of the University of Kazan, Prof. Alexander N. Nizhnikov, and the President of the University of Kazan, Prof. Nikolai N. Vasilyev. The ceremony was attended by students and professors from different universities.

The event began with the national anthems of all participating countries. Following this, speeches were delivered by the Rector and the President of the University of Kazan, who highlighted the importance of international cooperation and the role played by the University of Kazan in fostering global understanding. The speeches were followed by the exchange of gifts, which symbolized the beginning of a new chapter in the cooperation between the participating universities.

The students then proceeded to the presentation of the new students, who were introduced to the audience and welcomed. The event concluded with a reception, where the students had the opportunity to meet and interact with each other.

The International Student Conference is an annual event that brings together students from different countries, providing them with a platform to exchange ideas, share experiences, and strengthen their understanding of each other's cultures. The conference is an excellent opportunity for students to broaden their horizons and develop a global perspective.

In conclusion, the International Student Conference 2016 was a great success, bringing together students from different countries and fostering a spirit of cooperation and friendship. The event proved that international cooperation is essential in today's world, and it is hoped that the conference will pave the way for a more peaceful and harmonious future.
